

Prof. Chethan Chittalkar

Director,
Quality Circle Forum of India,
Hyderabad, Telangana

Prof. Chethan Chittalkar completed his Post Graduate degrees in Marketing from Manasa Gangotri's Institute of Development Studies at Mysore University and in Human Resources Management from the Institute of Rural Management (IRMA) in Anand, Gujarat.

Prof. Chethan is a personable character with more than 38 years of diverse experience working in various capacities at different organizations. His prior experience includes working as a faculty member, placement coordinator, course and SIP coordinator, associate director in the School of Management Studies. Also hold industrial experience in sole proprietorship, partnership, private limited companies, multinationals, and cooperatives.

Being an entrepreneur, he has experienced both success and failures in his entrepreneurial journey.

He has an experience of working in rural sector for about 16 years and in conducting Grama Sabha, forming co-operative societies, training, motivating the staff and the members, implementing various Government programs and schemes by visiting 1000+ villages across the country.

As a director in-charge for promoting Rural Management programs in the higher educational institutions across the country, he has conducted 60+ FDPs, 1000+ workshops on marketing of rural produce, rural and social entrepreneurship. He played a crucial role in connecting 100+ FPOs to HEIs in the country to provide operational support.

He is a Director in QCFI doing training, handholding the institutions and organizations in implementing various Management concepts like 5 S lean management, & other Japanese concepts.

He can speak English, Hindi, Kannada, Telugu, Marathi, Tamil, Gujarati, Tulu and Konkani languages.